POURS DRUG ON PILLOW; DIES IN SECRET

An Unknown Woman
Commits Suicide;
Gives False Name
and Address; Mystery to Be Solved.

Pouring a large quantity of chloroform on the pillow of her bed some time last night, an unknown woman inhaled the deadly fumes from the fluid and died in a room in the lodging-house at 1063 Franklin street. Her remains were found by H. M. Harris, the proprietor, about eight o'clock this morning. The dead woman was fairly well dressed and seemed to be about forty years of age. The poisonous acid blackened her features so that she is almost unrecognizable.

DIES IN SECRET.
About 4 p. m. yesterday the woman called at the lodging-house and engaged a room, going there immediately. Her hair was disarranged and her clothes were wet from the rain. The woman was not seen again, and

RESIGNATION OF GOVERNOR OF JAMAICA IS EXPECTED

LONDON, Jan. 25.—There is good reason to believe that Governor Swettenham of Jamaica has forwarded his resignation to the Colonial Office. The officials there say they are not prepared either to confirm or deny the report, but they admit having received the telegrams of a confidential character from the Governor. It has been fully expected here that a solution of the difficulty would be found in Swettenham's resignation. It has been freely stated in the Colonial and other government offices that that it was quite impossible for Swettenham to continue in office, not only because of the incident involving the withdrawal of the American warships from Kingston, but also on account of the protests against his conduct received from the inhabitants of Kingston.

FARMING CONGRESS NOW IN SESSION

DENVER, Jan. 25.—More than 200 accredited delegates from States and territories west of the Missouri river were present at the sessions of the Dry Farming Congress today and visitors swelled the attendance to a total of about 1000. The congress has been invited to meet next year at Cheyenne, Salt Lake and Los Angeles. President B. C. Ayresworth of Colorado Agricultural College, presided over the congress today.

"Well, on what condition?" said pretty Myra A. Darden this morning on the witness stand in Judge Waste's court, when asked by Attorney Peter Crosby if she would return the $2500 that Levi T. Darden gave her last summer at Eureka, while the former divorce suit was pending.

Judge Waste sustained the objection made by Senator Frank McGowan, who is Mrs. Darden's attorney in this divorce suit, and decided that the wife did not have to return the money in order to obtain the alimony asked for in her divorce complaint.

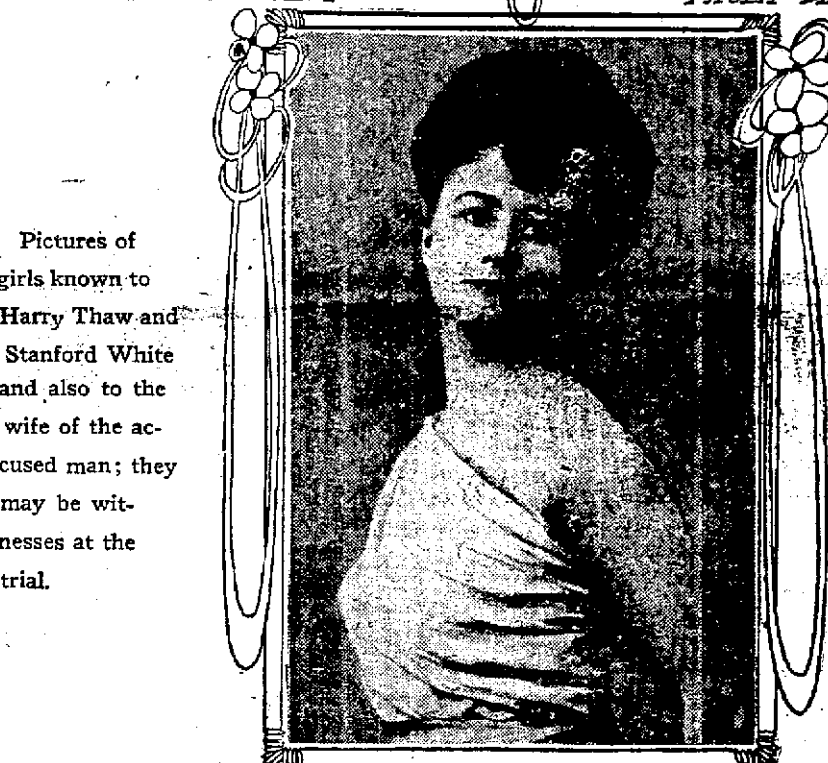

The entire morning was spent in arguing the request for $100 a month alimony. Darden's income is said to

Wife Is Very Pale,
Showing Great Strain

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—One more juror, making six in all, was added today to the panel which is to try Harry K. Thaw upon the charge of murder in the first degree.

He was selected near the close of the morning session. His name is Harold L. Fair, a printer. He is the first unmarried man to be selected and is about twenty-eight years of age.

Most of the talesmen excused from service today had formed such decided opinions as to disqualify them.

There was but one peremptory challenge and this was by Mr. Jerome in excusing a talesman named Charles H. Nesbit.

The similarity in name to Harry K. Thaw's wife caused the examination of the talesman to be followed with much interest until he apparently was about to be accepted, when Mr. Jerome challenged him.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—There were five men in the jury box today when the trial of Harry K. Thaw for the killing of Stanford White was resumed before Justice Fitzgerald.

Mrs. William Thaw, mother of the defendant, was present at the opening of the morning session, having fully recovered from the indisposition which kept her indoors yesterday.

She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. George L. Carnegie, the two having been preceded some minutes by Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw and May McKenzie.

The prisoner's wife still wore the plain dark blue suit that she had appeared in on every day of the trial. Today she had discarded her white veil for one of blue chiffon.

The effect was to bring out more distinctly the features of her face, which appeared unusually pale. The elder Mrs. Thaw was in conventional black.

The Countess of Yarmouth did not attend the trial today owing to a slight cold. Edward and Josiah Thaw were early in their seats.

JURORS ARE CHOSEN.

The five jurors selected during the first two days of the trial appeared to be men above the average intellect. All seemed to be in prosperous circumstances. Two were just above fifty years of age. George Pfaff, a hardware dealer, is the youngest, probably not more than thirty-four. Charles H. Fecke, the shipping agent is possibly forty and Arthur S. Campbell, a superintendent of telephone construction, is not more than two years older.

The two other jurors are Deming B. Smith, a retired manufacturer, and Henry C. Harney, manager of a piano concern.

AIDS MOTHER-IN-LAW.

When the elder Mrs. Thaw came into court she seemed oblivious of the presence of the prisoner's wife in the next seat

GUILT OF MILLINER WHO SELLS GIRLS IS REVEALED TO THE REV. DR. DILLE BY A PROMINENT SOCIETY WOMAN!

ST. HELENA, Cal., Jan. 23, 1907.
Editor TRIBUNE:—I have just learned of the criticisms called out by a statement of mine about a certain millinery establishment in Oakland. In that statement no reflection was cast upon any employee and upon only one employer. My authority for the statement is a lady of the very highest social standing in Oakland, but I have not as yet her permission to make public her name or that of the accused person. I believe my utterance to be timely and true, and can privately and confidentially refer to my informant any person who has a proper interest in the matter. I naturally supposed that the reputable proprietors of millinery establishments in Oakland were so far above reproach and suspicion that my statement could not be construed by anybody as a reflection on them, and I am sorry that any of them feel aggrieved.

Yours truly,

E. R. DILLE.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY IS TO INVESTIGATE

District Attorney Everett J. Brown says that he will investigate the charges made by Rev. E. R. Dille, and if he finds there has been violations of the law he will conduct a rigid prosecution.

"I have not ascertained the grounds of the accusations," said District Attorney Brown this morning, "but I intend to probe into the matter the same as in the alleged slave trade in Chinatown."

"I am going to investigate these charges made by Dr. Dille on my own account, and if I can find that there has been any violation of the law I shall start a vigorous prosecution of the offenders. Rest assured of that. As to whether Dr. Dille should have made public the name of the person that is a matter for him to decide. It might not have been proper for him at time to have made it public, but I have no doubt that at the proper time and to the proper persons he will reveal the name of the person referred to by him."

FIND PLAGUE SPOT.

"Oakland, January 24, 1907.
"Editor of OAKLAND TRIBUNE,
Oakland, Cal.—Dear Sir: The Rev. E. R. Dille has found a plague spot in Oakland. Now, it is 'unfair and unchristian' to find plague spots, or at least that seems the sentiment of the Oakland milliners. And each and every one, true to the woman-nature, has put the hat on to see if it will fit, and because it does not, they are out after the unlucky Rev. Dille with scalping knife and sword, and the sound of a mighty battle. But in the name of common sense, ladies, if this particular chicken does not roost in your yard, why insist on claiming it as your own!

District Attorney Brown, who declares that he is to conduct an independent investigation to learn the name of the milliner accused of selling girls.

WOULDN'T KNOW HIM.

"I would not know the Rev. Dille if I were to meet him," but one can rest assured that he has already been punished enough for being so bold and brave as to prod into such a hornet's nest, and also that he is fully convinced that the way of the reformer, as well as the transgressor, is hard.

"But we will have to agree that his remark slurs no one's good name who is innocent. Not one honest milliner in Oakland need suffer a single pang of mental suffering if she is not the guilty party, and if she is, she can easily deny ever having made such a suggestion to any young girl, and eventually sue her accuser for libel; so the milliners are surely on the winning side, and it is Dr. Dille and that unhappy girl who need our support and sympathy."

"So do not grow hysterical, oh milliners of Oakland, and clamor for Rev. Dille to blow a whistle and summon the police because some young parishioner has made him her confidant, and his courage as a man and a pastor has made him cry out against this evil. He will know that his bravery will not be made manifest by revealing that child's name, nor in exposing her to the unsavory notoriety that must of a necessity follow. Of course our human curiosity would prefer much more definite information, but his human honesty may rightly refuse to divulge in public what has been confided in secret."

OAKLAND IS AWAKE.

"We must realize that the old pastoral, 'peaceful go-to-bed-at-nine'

DEATH NEAR ATTEMPTS TO THIEF FIRST AUTO RAGER INTIMIDATE GETS FRIEND IN WRECK WITNESS DRUNK

CAR SPEEDING 125 MILES AN HOUR SPRINGS INTO AIR AND MARIOTT IS FRIGHTFULLY INJURED.

ORMOND, Fla., Jan. 25.—In the third attempt to break the one-mile record in the auto races today Marriott's steam car struck a bump in the beach and was hurled into the air and shattered to fragments when it fell. Marriott was seriously, but probably not fatally injured.

That Marriott escaped with his life is regarded little short of miraculous. He was helpless after the car struck the obstruction and sprang into the air. His efforts to bring it under control when it struck after a tremendous leap had no effect whatever, and it wobbled and plunged and finally turned completely over. The driver was pinned into the machine as it hurtled along, rolling over and over until it finally was shattered almost to splinters.

Marriott was freed and his unconscious form slid along for yards before it came to a stop. The boiler of the engine rolled along down the beach a great distance.

Marriott regained consciousness very quickly, but it was seen that one rib was broken and one of his eyes probably destroyed, besides which he was badly bruised. Whether he is internally injured has not been determined. Fortunately for Marriott, the fuse plug in the boiler blew out at the moment of the accident and permitted the steam to escape.

Marriott's car was running at the rate of nearly 125 miles an hour at the time of the accident.

WOMAN SAYS SHE WAS WARNED NOT TO TES-TIFY IN CRIMINAL CASE AGAINST DR. GWYER.

Two attempts are said to have been made by the defense in the manslaughter case against Florence Ruth Gwyer to tamper with the witnesses for the prosecution. In both cases Mrs. Margaret Jones, of 824 Oak street, Alameda, has been challenged by parties, advising her not to testify concerning the instruments used as evidence in the alleged criminal operation on Flo. Peterson which caused her death. Mrs. Jones, who was formerly in the employ of Mrs. Gwyer when the woman doctor had an office at 1326 Chestnut street, took the stand this morning.

She told of F. Cornell, a former boarder at Mrs. Gwyer's house, stopping her in the corridor of the court-house, and telling her not to testify about the surgical instruments, for if she did she would get into trouble. Judge Melvin took the matter up and immediately ordered a subpoena for Cornell, who was one of the spectators.

The words of Mrs. Jones in relating the interview with Cornell are as fol-

J. C. KIPLING THEN STEALS
$150 PLACED FOR SAFETY
IN J. R. LEE'S SUITCASE
AND MAKES HIS ESCAPE.

After getting his roommate, J. R. Lee, intoxicated yesterday afternoon, J. C. Kipling, a racetrack follower, went to their room in the Golden West Hotel and stole Lee's money, amounting to about $150. The police have been notified of the theft and are now in search of Kipling, who, it is believed, has left the State.

Lee and Kipling had been working in the country together for some time and had come to this city on a pleasure trip. Yesterday each deposited $150 in the former's suitcase and the two left for the racetrack. On the return from Emeryville, Lee became intoxicated and Kipling left him. The latter went to the Golden West Hotel, took the money from his roommate's suitcase and departed with his effects. When Kipling arrived at the room he was told that his "partner" had left just ten minutes before. Lee did not notify the police for several hours after the theft had occurred.

Kipling is 25 years of age, five feet ten inches in height, fair complexioned, smooth shaven and wearing a long black cravenette overcoat, a dark suit of mixed goods, a light soft shirt and a black stiff hat. Lee hails from Chicago, residing at 2126 Prairie street in that city, and Kipling came from Mendota, Ohio.

CANDIDATES LINING UP FOR THE PRIMARY

There Will Be Some Interesting Contests in the Various Wards.

All the political signs point to the nomination of the following ticket by the Republican Municipal convention:

FOR MAYOR, FRANK K. MOTT.
FOR AUDITOR, EDWIN MEESE.
OR GEORGE GROSS.
FOR TREASURER, RICHARD B. AYRES.
FOR CITY ENGINEER, F. C. TURNER.
FOR CITY ATTORNEY, ABE P. LEACH.

No candidate has appeared to contest with Dick Ayers for the treasurer'ship.

SHARP BRUSHES.
 There will be some sharp brushes for councilmanic nominations. However, a strong combination in favor of R. J. Boyer has been formed in the Fourth ward, but E. C. Hahn will do his best to hold his seat. Hahn bested Boyer for the nomination two years ago, and now Boyer is trying to turn the tables on him. Edwin Meese, councilman-at-large from the Fourth ward, has refused to ally himself with either the Boyer or the Hahn factions. He has declared himself in the auditor'ship fight, and is said to have told some of his friends that he would not seek the Republican nomination for the council.

There is quite a mix-up in the First ward. Harold Everhardt is a candidate for ward councilman against the sitting member, Alexander McAdam. Everhardt's friends held a caucus Wednesday night and agreed to support the following candidates: Mott, for mayor; Everhardt, for ward councilman; Harry T. Burns, for councilman-at-large; F. C. Turner, for city engineer, and Dr. J. B. Wood for school director-at-large. Fred C. Clift now represents the ward in the school board, but no reference was made to him or his office. It is intimated that Dr. A. S. Kelly will be a candidate against Clift, who has not said whether he would or would not stand for reelection.

Burns, who is councilman-at-large from the First ward, has thus far refused to ally himself with either the McAdam or Everhardt factions, but an effort is being made by McAdam's friends to get him to line up.

IN THE WARDS.
 W. J. Burns in the Sixth and A. L. Elliott in the Second are sure of renomination. Eugene Stuchler is a candidate for councilman-at-large from the Second ward.

The Seventh ward delegation will be for Harry S. Anderson for ward councilman, Donaldson having declined to run; E. T. Aitken for councilman-at-large, and Dr. Wilcox for school director.

R. H. Pendleton seems to have a clinch on renomination in the Fifth ward, although there is some talk of Bertholomew Noyes, a lawyer, appearing in the lists against him. Ben Woolner can have the nomination for the school board if he wants it, but has not yet signified his intention.

THIRD WARD.
 In the Third ward there is a faction of the Republicans opposed to George Fitzgerald, but it is not settled who will be pitted against him. He may have no opposition for renomination, and will win out anyway.

Oliver Ellsworth will be the Municipal League candidate. E. T. Thurston, councilman-at-large from the Fourth ward, is not likely to ask a renomination.

THE LEAGUE.
 Two years ago the Municipal League endorsed John E. McElroy, the Democratic and Union Labor nominee for city attorney, and it has been assumed that the League would do so again. But the executive committee of the League this year is a Leach organization, if that fact is indication of anything. At one time there was considerable talk of putting McElroy on the Republican ticket, but the party leaders appear to have finally agreed that Leach shall have the nomination.

Charges of Extreme Cruelty Are Made in the Complaint Before the Court.

be $350 a month, but all his property, which consists of valuable business land in Eureka and holdings at Hayward, are all tied up in an injunction issued by the court when the suit was commenced.

COMPLAINT NOT READ.
 The complaint, which alleges extreme cruelty, was not read in court this morning.

Mrs. Darden related the scene in Governor Gillett's law office at Eureka, for Gillett and Cutler were her attorneys in the northern town.

She said that Darden offered to buy a home and begin life anew with her as soon as he found a suitable place in Eureka to build.

Mrs. Darden said that she was willing to spend the $2500 toward furnishing a home, but when asked this morning if her intentions were the same, she was permitted to remain silent and the matter was continued for two weeks.

Mrs. Darden was advised by her attorneys to leave Eureka, for the trouble was killing her husband. She accepted the $2500, dismissed the divorce suit and went to the home of her parents at Grants Pass.

DAUGHTER IN COURT.
 Miss Della Darden, daughter of the former Eureka furniture dealer, was an interested spectator during the proceedings this morning. The young society leader from the University of California closely watched the cross-examination of her father's young bride.

Miss Della resides with her mother, Mary V. Darden at Stuart and Minnie streets in Berkeley. The pretty home was provided by Levi T. Darden when his first divorced wife left Eureka and took up her residence in the college town.

The campaign against fathers in woman's hats has reached France. The most humanitarian of women naturally have been a trifle doubtful of the success of the movement, in spite of its high patronage, in view of the fact that everything in regard to female fashion still follows the lead of Paris. But no Paris has taken up the matter in which London, New York, Berlin and Amsterdam already have moved and a league now exists the object of which is to combat the slaughter of young birds for feminine adornment. The idea of the league is not to trouble the legislature or the authorities but to endeavor to influence public opinion and first of all to interest the modiste in the movement. One point gained is that all who have heard about the matter seem to be surprised that hats can be made so attractive without birds' feathers.

ATTEMPTS TO INTIMIDATE

Woman Says She Was Warned Not to Give Testimony in Case.

low: "He told me that I was mistaken, that none of the instruments in the bunch which I had testified to in the preliminary examination had ever been used by the doctor. He said I had no right to pick it up, and that if I testified about washing it, it would do me no good and would mix myself up in it and get into trouble myself."

MADE TWO VISITS.
 When questioned as to other people who had interfered with her in regards to this case, Mrs. Jones said that one of the spectators in the courtroom had made two visits to her Alameda home.

When asked by Prosecuting Attorney Hines to point out the man, Mrs. Jones motioned to the gray-haired Daniel McGlone, who, she said, made two visits to her house at Alameda.

REPRIMANDS MCGLONE.
 A subpoena was ordered for McGlone, and during the recess he was taken into District Attorney Brown's office and cross-examined about his alleged tampering with the witness. Hines reprimanded the man for his calling on Mrs. Jones and warning her against testifying.

Hines could be heard in loud tones outside of his office door, denouncing McGlone and warning her against testifying. The old man stood the storm of words from the official and when asked if he belonged to the Salvation Army home at Beulah Park, he told the attorney that he did not.

McGlone is a resident of Beulah Park.

SHE HELPED HIM.
 When seen in the corridor, McGlone denied the charges of telling Mrs. Jones not to testify about the doctor's instruments.

"Mrs. Gwyer has done me many a good turn," said McGlone. "When I was sick one time she doctored me and I am very grateful to her and if I can I will do her a good turn. I first became acquainted with her when she kept her horses in my stable in San Francisco several years ago. Yes, I did go to Mrs. Jones' house in Alameda, but I did not warn her about telling what she knew concerning the instruments." When Mrs. Jones was called to the office of Lin S. Church, one of Mrs. Gwyer's attorneys, she is said to have sworn to an affidavit that one of the instruments used as evidence was not the original. McGlone is said to have made the visit to Mrs. Jones' home to ask her to come over and swear to the affidavit.

Mrs. Jones said on the witness stand that she had seen Dr. Peterson at Mrs. Gwyer's office two days before the girl was removed to the Central hospital.

HELPED MAKE HIM GOOD.
 "During our courtship," said Mrs. Woods, "poor John declared he would die for me and he did."
 "Indeed!" exclaimed the surprised friend.
 "Yes," continued the fair widow. "I did the cooking myself and he died of indigestion."

AHEAD OF THE GAME.
 "There is a far-away look in your eyes," said the sentimental youth, "that leads me to believe you have loved and lost."
 "I may have loved," rejoined the fair grass widow, "but I didn't lose. The jury awarded me $50,000 alimony."

LADIES' NIGHT AT LAKESIDE

Great Program and Door Prizes Are Offered at Popular Rink.

There is a big program on at Lakeside rink tonight that should crowd that popular resort. One of the features will be a two-step contest for a handsome prize. Two-step contests do not seem to lose their popularity at Lakeside and always are interesting.

Two door prizes are offered for the ladies: a fine pair of skates and a commutation ticket. This is ladies' night, when fair skaters are welcomed without a ticket, and those who do not skate will find lots to interest them in the races and excellent musical program by the Lakeside band.

Saturday's all-day program is a good one. In the afternoon, there will be a children's two-step contest for skaters under 15 years of age. Lots of young folks who are clever skaters are patrons of Lakeside, so a good contest is assured. Saturday evening a field of speedy racers will get away in a one-mile handicap race. Prizes are offered in all the above events.

Sunday afternoon the attraction will be a graceful skating contest and in the evening there will be a couples' race, the last named one of the most interesting contests on rollers.

All next week will be an engagement of rare excellence, that of Frank Wilson, trick cyclist, who will be seen at his best on the big Lakeside surface. No feat is too difficult for him to perform in a finished manner, and his program is replete with new and sensational features.

Last night's polo game was a hummer, although a disappointment to the big crowd, inasmuch as the Oakland boys lost, 3 goals to 1, after a plucky fight. San Francisco's team work and accurate passing turned the tide in their favor in the second period. Tuesday night, Oakland and Crockett will play.

Editor OAKLAND TRIBUNE, Dear Sir: I desire to call your attention to the TRIBUNE's report of the first meeting of the "Committee of Progress," held in the Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday evening, January 16, 1907. It should have read $5 for annual dues, and show you that the TRIBUNE is read even by our own members I will state that three (3) of them have asked to be excused from serving as they could not afford such an assessment. Kindly correct this, and with the committee's thanks to the TRIBUNE for past favors and courtesies, I remain, yours for "50,000 population in 1910."

500,000 People in Oakland in 1910.

Letter No. 7.

New York, Jan. 20.—Eastern Office, 115 Fifth Avenue.

WILLIE THE BOOSTER.—Dear Sir: When I saw our ad with the "500,000 people in 1910" at the head I had to laugh and told our office man that Web had wheels and that they were turning around, but when I came to think of it he is not far off from the exact figures. If every man and woman in Oakland, above school age will only be the means of bringing one other person into Oakland in the next four years we will have one-half million, and more too—and that means more clothes, so let her grow, boost it along. Tell Webster to put it at the top of every ad he writes and make it big. We might just as well die for a hog as a pig and our store must grow with it, so you see that Frank Houts crowds the Boys' and Children's Department for all he is worth and tell the boys to keep things moving. I can buy enough clothing here in one day to fill the store chuck full but I can't get it shipped 'cause the railroads are crowded for cars and engines. Well I will be home sometime soon. Yours for Greater Oakland and Greater Sales.

THAW TWICE STOPS JURORS FROM BEING SWORN IN

Defendant Takes Lively Interest in Legal Battle, Which Means Life or Death to Him.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—District Attorney Jerome and counsel for the defense in the trial of Harry K. Thaw, all expressed themselves as satisfied at the progress made in the work of selecting a jury. Five men were in the box when court adjourned yesterday, and as the examination of jurors as so far developed, is not nearly so severe as was expected, the prospects are good that additional jurors will be obtained today. Some of those connected with the case predicted that the jury will be completed by Monday night and that the trial proper will begin on Tuesday.

THAW OBJECTS.

Thaw himself took more interest in the proceedings yesterday and two additional jurors would have been secured had it not been for his interference. A talesman had proved unacceptable to the district attorney and to Clifford W. Hartridge, leading counsel for Thaw, when there was a sudden gathering of heads over the table at the head of which sat Harry Thaw. The juror was about to be sworn when Mr. Hartridge stopped proceedings to hear what Thaw had to say. When the conference ended the prospective juror was challenged for cause. This proceeding happened a second time during the day, Thaw objecting to a talesman, who was acceptable to the counsel.

"UNWRITTEN LAW."

Thaw seemed pleased with the day's work as he entered the "Tomb" he said to the keeper: "We got three in the last half hour, (meaning jurors), and they are good men, too, I think." The district attorney kept humming the "unwritten law," and a possible deviation from the written law governing the criminality insane. Yesterday he added another feature to his plan of examination asking the talesmen if they were capable of withstanding appeals to their emotions and feelings and if they thought they could pass on the prisoner's case calmly according to the instruction in the law they would receive from the judge. This was a sign of the district attorney's anticipation of the promised dramatic appeal from Delphin M. Delmas of counsel for the defense.

MOTHER OF EVELYN THAW DOESN'T SEEK VENGEANCE

Says Such a Thought Never Entered Her Mind; Another Juror Is Chosen.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 25.—Interviews appeared in two afternoon papers today with Mrs. Charles J. Thaw, mother of Mrs. Evelyn Thaw, in which Mrs. Holman is quoted as saying:

"I wish you would deny I am seeking vengeance. Never had such a thought entered my mind."

To the Associated Press Mrs. Holman asserted that she had issued no statement, but added that she had no intention of going to New York, nor had she thought of vengeance.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—When the Thaw case was resumed this afternoon Malcolm S. Frazer, a salesman, 40 years old, the ninety-first talesman examined, was chosen as the seventh juror.

the application of electricity as a means of carrying out such a penalty.

There was a decided murmur throughout the courtroom when Lawyer Hartridge asked the talesman if he knew Stanford White and he replied:

"I am pleased to say I did not."

A bailiff had to rap for order.

LIVELY ARGUMENT.

Ketcham said he had a pretty decided opinion but he thought he could lay it aside in the face of the evidence.

There was a lively argument between Mr. Jerome and Mr. Hartridge as to the extent and effect of the talesman's opinion and this led to the first incident approaching a clash between counsel.

Mr. Jerome was speaking when Mr. Hartridge arose and was about to interrupt. Jerome turned on the young attorney and said with a show of irritation:

"Will you allow me to finish my argument?"

Mr. Hartridge sat down without a reply.

Ketcham was excused.

OF SAME NAME.

When Charles H. Nesbit was called to the stand all eyes turned towards Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw because of the similarity of names.

Nesbit said he was not in any way related to the prisoner's wife. He had read about the case and had formed an opinion. Any reasonable doubt he would give to the defendant.

Nesbit was challenged by Mr. Jerome. This was the ninth challenge of a peremptory nature used by the District Attorney.

Thirty such challenges are allowed each side. The defense has employed six.

JUROR SECURED.

Harold R. Fair proved to be the sixth juror secured. He was in the midst of a clothbound novel when he was interrupted by the clerk calling his name.

Mr. Fair was the thirteenth talesman examined today and the sixty-third since the trial began.

He took his place after the oath was administered.

Aaron M. Klaw, the next talesman, was excused because of prejudice.

At this point the luncheon recess until 2 p. m. was taken.

THAW CASE ADJOURNS

SCROFULA A FAMILY BLOOD TAIN

Scrofula is not a disease that is acquired, under ordinary circumstances. It is a deep-seated family blood taint, handed down from generation to generation, blighting the lives and sapping the vital forces of innocent persons who have inherited this legacy of disease. Parents who are blood relations or who have a consumptive tendency, or blood disease of any character, are sure to transmit it to their offspring, and it usually takes the form of Scrofula. Swollen glands, brittle bones, weak eyes, sores and eruptions on the body, Catarrh, and often deformities with hip disease, are the principal ways in which the trouble is manifested. In some cases the blood is so filled with scrofulous germs and poisons that from birth the sufferer is an object of pity because of suffering and prudent living hold the disease in check until later in life. A deep-seated blood disease like Scrofula can only be reached by the very best constitutional treatment. A remedy is required that can renovate the entire blood supply and drive out the scrofulous and tuberculous deposits. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers; it goes to the very bottom of all blood disorders and removes every taint and poison from the circulation, makes rich, healthy blood and cures Scrofula permanently. S. S. S. supplies the weak, diseased blood with the rich, health-sustaining properties it is in need of, and makes this life stream fit to supply every part of the system with strength and vitality. Scrofula yields to S. S. S. because it is a natural blood purifier. Write for book on the blood and any medical advice desired. No charge for either.

AMERICAN AND ENGLISH BEST

Kahn Addresses Congress on How Companies Settled Losses.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Representative Kahn of California addressed the House on the manner in which fire insurance companies had settled their losses growing out of the fire and earthquake at San Francisco. He said that at the time of the fire 118 companies had policies on property in the devastated district all of which were American except 30, and that of the foreign companies 17 were English, 2 German, 2 Scottish and Canadian, and one each in Austria, Sweden and New Zealand.

Most of the American companies had paid their losses in full with the result of the depletion of their capital and in several cases of insolvency.

He paid a compliment to the English companies and most of the American companies, but said that the foreign companies, other than English, had endeavored to repudiate their obligations, and most of them have withdrawn from the State.

In the cases of the German and Austrian companies, however, through the action of the German courts and the good offices of the State Department, he said, the insured probably will receive settlement of 50 cents on the dollar or over.

"Not one of the six German companies doing business in San Francisco prior to the fire has paid the policy 100 cents on the dollar," said Mr. Kahn. "This is in marked contrast with the 17 English companies writing business in that city, for most of the latter paid their obligations in full. Three of the German companies had immediately after the fire denied all liabilities and withdrawn from the State. Up to the present time these companies have not paid a dollar on their policies in that city."

PEOPLE OF JAMAICA ARE VERY BRAVE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Vice-Consul Orrel, at Kingston, Jamaica, today cabled the State Department as follows: "Sisters of Immaculate Conception and the Hobbies suffer. Ninety per cent of buildings destroyed. People facing situation bravely. Half the population sheltering in the open. American fathers doing me to identify any of our citizens. Interests being fully protected." "The Hobbies referred to are an American family about whom inquiries were made by the State Department."

BASEBALL BILL IS PASSED IN KANSAS

TOPEKA, Kans., Jan. 25.—The House of Representatives passed today what is known as the anti-Sunday baseball bill by a vote of 80 to 20. The bill provides that baseball, shows, circuses, vaudeville and theatrical performances shall not be given on Sunday "for which an admission, or entrance fee is charged or collected."

DWYER IS PREVENTED

RENO, Nev., Jan. 25.—The execution of Patsy Dwyer, convicted of the murder of A. C. Williams, a conductor of the Nevada Central Railroad at Austin, was prevented at Carson yesterday afternoon by an order of the Supreme court of Nevada, granting him a new trial.

TWO IMPORTANT BILLS DEFEATED

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 25.—In the State Senate today, White's anti-purse bill was defeated by a vote of 17 to 8. In the same body, a bill which provided unusually broad anti-gambling laws also was defeated, the vote being practically unanimous.

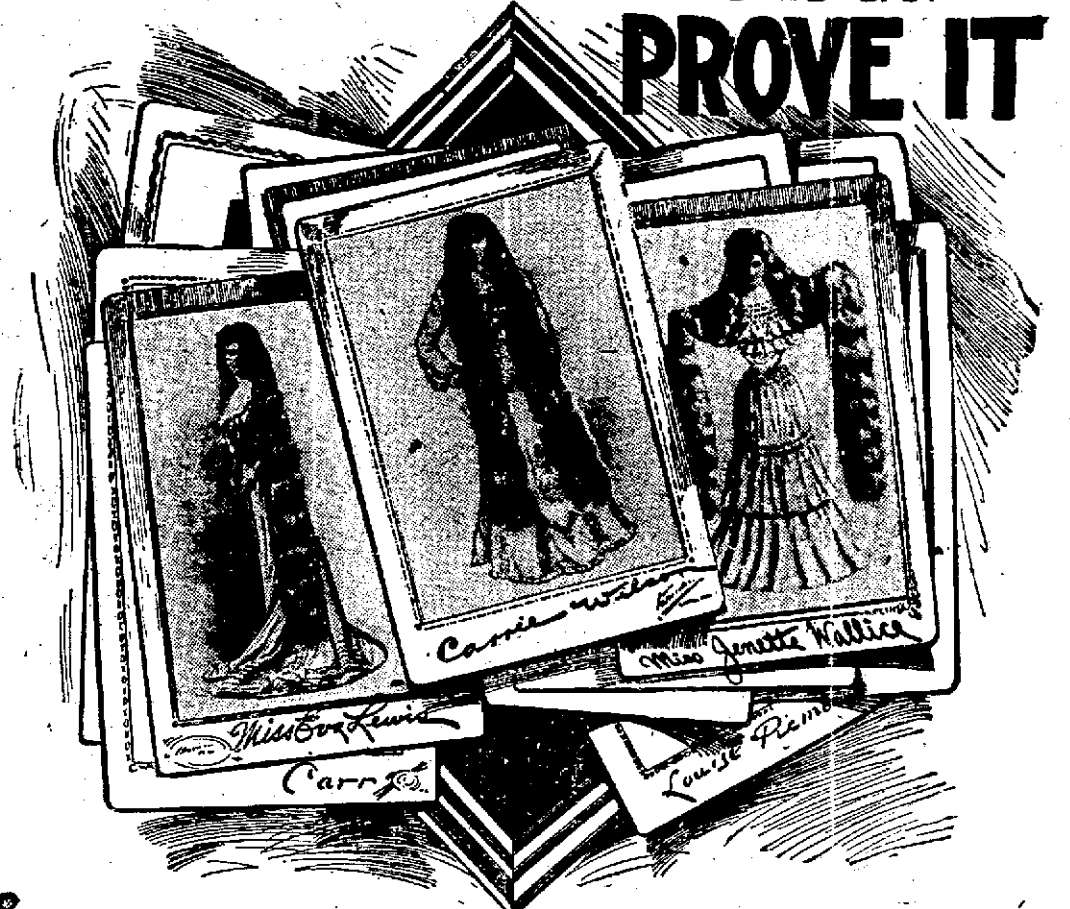

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The director of the Mint today purchased 100,000 ounces of silver to be delivered at Denver at 68.84 cents a fine ounce.

WHY does the Heine Piano Co.

sell more Pianos than any other house on the Pacific Coast?

Because they are the only firm doing business direct from their own factory.

When you buy a Heine Piano you buy it wholesale. You pay the actual cost of making it, with only our wholesale profit added. When you buy a piano, as many people do, at retail, you pay retail dealers high store rent and other expenses. You pay his profit. The retail profit on a piano is usually not less than $100; often times it is as much as $300.00. This is what you save by buying Heine Pianos direct from the factory.

Is this not worth saving? Our experience has been a great success. In twenty years there have been over 28,000 Heine Pianos manufactured and sold. Every HEINE

Piano sold is guaranteed for twenty years against any defect in tone, action workmanship or material. The Heine player piano is a new instrument to the people of this community. This instrument, to say the least, is a marvel of the musical age. It is the first and only piano with an automatic player on the inside of the case, with the aid of which any one with the least musical inclination can play in a manner as to render the greatest compositions, so as to surpass the playing of an artist. You can play one note soft as a whisper and the next one louder than any one with their fingers. You can shade every note, you can play your accompaniments as they should be played—soft and with a legato style, no matter whether in the base or treble.

Call at any one of the following local stores and hear this marvelous instrument. If you can afford it you will immediately place and order. The price has been reduced for introductory purposes on a small number of these instruments, and even if you have an old piano, or have just purchased a new piano, will take the same in exchange, allowing you full value toward one of these HEINE PLAYER PIANOS.

We have to offer for the next few days several second-hand instruments, which were taken in exchange on the HEINE PLAYER PIANO, as we need every inch of warerooms to make room for our large shipment that will arrive here about the 25th of January. Below we quote you prices on a few:

LAST DAY OF AUTO RACING

Perfect Weather and Beach Conditions at Ormond Favor Sportsmen.

ORMOND, Fla., Jan. 25.—Perfect weather and beach conditions today favored the last day of racing. There were five events on the card, including Marriot's attempt to reduce the present record of 23.14 seconds for the mile. The other events are a five-mile club championship for drivers of the amateur class, and sprint races at one, six and twelve miles.

The six-mile handicap for amateurs was won by Laughlin in a thirty-horsepower gasoline car in 8 minutes 8.25 seconds, actual running time. Laughlin had a handicap of 1 minute 6 seconds.

Marriot failed in his attempt to lower the mile record. He covered the distance in 23.35 seconds, two-fifths of a second slower than the best previous performance.

The twelve-mile event, between an English and American touring car stripped, was won by Hutton in the English car. Time, 13:12.5.

William E. Ray of Brooklyn established a new mile record for two-cylinder motor cycle. Time, 4:42.5.

The six mile special match between the two 30-horsepower runabouts was won by Laughlin in 7 minutes 35 seconds.

PARIS, Jan. 25.—Against vehement protests of the Right, the Chamber of Deputies today adopted the bill providing for the automatic granting of decrees of divorce if either party persists in a suit for three years. ALAMEDA COUNTY SUED BY ASSESSOR County Assessor Henry P. Dalton brought suit against the County of Alameda yesterday afternoon to recover $5612.10 which he claims is due for his commissions for collecting poll taxes during the year of 1906.

Under section 215 of the County Government Act the assessor is allowed fifteen per cent commission on the poll tax he collects. Dalton had been holding out his dividend, but the county brought suit against him and was given judgment.

The Supreme Court reversed the judgment and awarded the commissions to Mr. Dalton. The suit filed yesterday is a formal action to recover the money awarded him by the Supreme Court's decision.

SIMIAN VIEWPOINT.

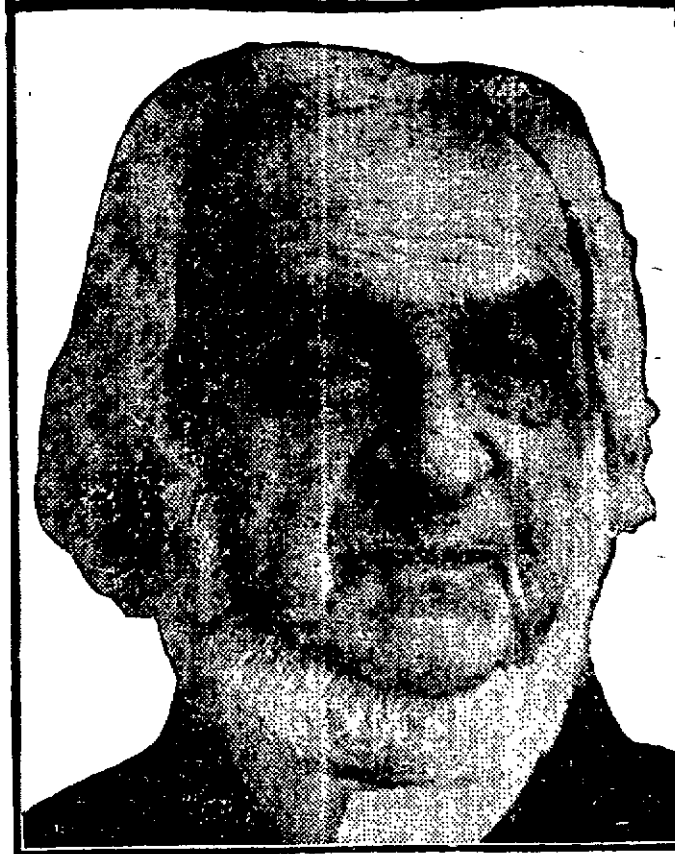

"According to Darwin," said one of the monkeys at Lincoln Park, "men are descended from us."

"And do you believe it?" queried monkey No. 2.

"Well, I have no reason to doubt it," rejoined the first monkey. "but that dude in front of our cage must have descended from an awfully long way."

Prominent Clergyman Restored to Vigor.

REV. A. H. LONG, 84 YEARS OLD

The Rev. Dr. A. H. Long, a prominent and independent clergyman, who is called the venerable Church of God minister, of Mount Joy, Penn., is 84 years of age, and says DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY, the Great Renewer of Youth, cured him of nervous debility, congestion of the brain, grip and severe attacks of vertigo and restored him to health and vigor.

"During the past four years of my life I have suffered much from nervous debility, congestion of the brain, in grippe, nervous prostration and numerous severe attacks of vertigo. In consequence of this my system became very much disordered. Some time since I resolved that I would give my medicine a fair trial. Now I am perfectly well, strong and vigorous. I am in the eighty-fourth year of my age, and my purpose is to keep my medicine always on hand as a restorative tonic. A. H. LONG, Mount Joy, Pa., Sept. 17, '06."

Rev. Dr. Long has preached 6,000 sermons, written out in full 2,000 sermons, baptized 547 professing believers, married 114 couples, officiated at 500 funerals, preached at 75 different camp meetings and revised the Apostles' Creed. Many prominent clergymen, doctors of medicine and temperance workers, who, like Dr. Long, have been benefited by this great medicine, extol its virtues.

NOMINATING AT PRIMARY

Features of Stetson's Bill for Choosing Candidates at the Polls.

Special to THE TRIBUNE.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 25.—One of the most important subjects, and on which there will be a great diversity of opinion, is that of a direct primary. There are several measures of the kind already before the legislature and among them is one which has just been presented by Assemblyman Stetson of Oakland on which that gentleman has been working with a great deal of enthusiasm for several weeks. The measure has been referred to the Committee on Judiciary and after coming from that body will go to the committee on election laws.

DON'T MARRY A GAMBLER, IS ADVICE OF ONE WOMAN

Former Wife of Patrick J. Kearns, of Brooklyn, Who Obtained a Divorce, Tells of Her Experience.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—"Don't marry a gambler," is the advice Mrs. Anna C. Kearns, of 200 Wyckoff avenue, Brooklyn, gives to girls. "If marriage is a lottery, don't make it more of a gamble by marrying a man of chance."

Mrs. Kearns has just won in such a lottery by getting out of it. In other words, she has been divorced. Her husband was the well-known gambler, Patrick J. Kearns. She brought suit for absolute divorce through Grauer & Ratakoft, of No. 149 Nassau street, and the decree was granted by Justice White in the Brooklyn Supreme Court.

Estelle Holloway, who was named in the case, was once the girl chum of the wife, and is now as bitter against the gambler as is Mrs. Kearns. When she met Kearns Miss Holloway was organist in a Baptist church in this city. Her acquaintance with Kearns became known. His being a gambler and his being married made a stir of no mean proportion. Miss Holloway left the church.

"A gambler's whole life is a game of chance," Mrs. Kearns said last night. "and he is bound to make his wife the same. Mr. Kearns taught me the lesson when he forsook me for Miss Holloway, who was named in my suit. Now she has learned the same lesson and is back with her mother, after losing her position because of him."

"We lived together for years, but I got only little help from him. When he would lose in his gambling he did not have the money to support me right. When he won he said he needed the money to bet again, and 'make a killing.' As he always came back broke from the expected 'killing,' I couldn't understand just what 'killing' meant unless it was the death of me. So the thing went on. But I'd have endured it all if I hadn't found that he had put by my love for him in his constant game of chance."

"I noticed with dismay that the appearances of the household were slowly but surely becoming less and less. First a chair would vanish. Then a table. Then knives and forks. I was wondering whether he was pawning or selling them to get more money for the races. Imagine my surprise when the neighbors came to tell me the secret."

"Mr. Kearns had started a home at 2024 West Second street, Coney Island, for the Holloway girl, and the belongings of my house were being moved into here. That was too much, so I left him."

Kearns's passion for gambling was exemplified when he was arrested two years ago in a get-rich-quick case. It was alleged he was the treasurer of the concern. He had his attorneys rush through proceedings and threw down $2,500 as bail in order that he might hustle to the Aqueduct track.

"I know two or three good things," he said, "and I can't stay away."

The new Shah of Persia, Mohammed Ali Mirza, is a man of marked energy, educated in Europe and said to be thoroughly imbued with the idea of Western progress and civilization. The picture shows him in his uniform as Crown Prince and Governor-General of a province. At the top of the picture is shown a few of the 800 wives of the late Shah, who are now bewailing the death of their lord and master.

GIVES HALF OF HIS ESTATE TO HIS DEATHBED BRIDE

Pennsylvania Man, Married Shortly Before Expiring, Leaves Property to His Wife.

SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 25.—Signed in the broken, scrawling handwriting of a man so close to death that death, it might be said, stood by to act as witness, the will of Harry H. Harris, who died recently, following his deathbed marriage to Miss Bessie Sloan, has been probated in the office of Register Lawler.

Harris, realizing that his course of life was run, asked that his sweetheart, Miss Bessie Sloan, be called, and at the bedside the pair were joined in marriage.

Harris died next day. In his will he leaves all his property to his wife and his mother, in equal shares. The estate was valued at $5000.

SOCIETY WOMAN IS HELD FOR ROBBERIES OF HOTEL

Asheville, North Carolina, Circles Are Excited About Theft of Diamonds and Gowns.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Jan. 25.—Mrs. L. V. Knight, a pretty young society woman, who has been making her home for the last year at the most fashionable hotels, has been arrested in connection with several diamond robberies that occurred last year.

Mrs. Knight is a petite blonde and popular in younger society circles. Her trunks were searched and some handsome gowns, belonging to Mrs. W. H. Wilcox, who has been living in the same hotel with Mrs. Knight, recovered.

Miss Florence Giffen of New Orleans, a popular young society woman of that city and a granddaughter of Phil Oxnard, known as the sugar king, lost her jewels in the early part of the season, and the jewels of Miss Mabel Underwood of Louisiana disappeared later on in the season.

Mrs. Knight was secretly arrested here on Sunday night. She was allowed to give bond and was to have been arraigned for trial on Thursday, but suddenly left town.

Her husband, when told of his wife's arrest, fainted away. He left Asheville with her, and protests her innocence, declaring it all is caused by her physical condition, she having been in a sanitarium here.

GEM THIEF SUSPECT IS NIECE OF TWO BISHOPS

North Carolina Woman, Arrested for Robbing a Bride, Gives Bail and Disappears.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Jan. 25.—Accused as a suspect in two diamond robberies, committed here last summer in one of the most exclusive hotels, and charged with the theft of wedding gowns from the trousseau of Mrs. W. H. Wilcox, Mrs. L. V. Knight, a pretty young woman from Atlanta, was secretly arrested here.

Her trunks were searched by the police, and some of the gowns belonging to Mrs. Wilcox were found stored away in the bottom of them.

Mrs. Knight declared she was the victim of a plot. She had been undergoing treatment at an Asheville sanitarium for a year. Doctors here tell of her nervous condition, which may have rendered her irresponsible. Her husband says she is innocent.

After being arrested Mrs. Knight was bailed out and promptly disappeared.

It is believed she boarded a Jacksonville, (Fla.), train and was accompanied by her husband.

It is not considered likely that any of the charges preferred against Mrs. Knight would be pressed owing to her social standing. She comes from an old aristocratic Georgia family and is the niece of two prominent Southern bishops.

Two diamond robberies occurred here last summer and created a big sensation. Miss Florence Giffen and Miss Mabel Underwood were the victims. Their gems, worth between $15,000 and $20,000, have not been recovered.

ONLY ME.

A little figure guided through the hall:
"Is that you, Pet?"—the words came tenderly;
A sob—suppressed to let the answer fall—
"It isn't Pet, mamma; it's only me!"

The quivering baby lips!—they had not meant
To utter any word could plant a sting,
But to that mother's heart a strange pang went;
She heard, and stood like a convicted thing.

One instant, and a happy little face
Thrilled "neath unwonted kisses rained above;
And, from that moment, Only Me had place
And part with Pet in tender mother love.

DISH CLOTHS

Dish cloths and cleaning cloths are staples in the housefurnishing store, dish cloths selling at 10 cents each and floor cloths at 5 cents. A most satisfactory dish cloth is one made from three thicknesses of old cotton cloth stitched together diagonally and crosswise. This sheds no lint, is pliable and soft, and is easily kept white and clean by daily scalding. All cleaning and dusting cloths should be hemmed, as nothing is more disastrous to plumbing than a lot of lint.

Old pieces of soft muslin should never be thrown away, as they are invaluable in sickness. Old sheets cut in strips, rolled tightly and fastened with a safety pin make fine bandages, and even in the best regulated house a bandage may be called for in a hurry. Old blankets are fine for padding the ironing board, and a square heated at night and folded about the feet of a child or old person will often bring quiet sleep which would otherwise be long in coming.

SILK BLOUSES.
The finest white lingerie and cobweb waists have been worn all through the Autumn with any style of cloth suit or separate skirt, and by a number of women this style of bodice will not be laid aside throughout the Winter, but will be worn over a thin silk or lawn slip. It is a question whether or not it is economical to wear these white waists so commonly. The principle is, of course, that instead of having to be cleaned the bodice can be laundered each week, and then, only the finer waists are permissible, and these wear out quickly under constant washing and if worn continually beneath a heavy cloth coat. The silk waists do not seem to soil so readily and are little, if any, more expensive than those of so-called wash materials.

POLITICE FOR COLDS.
Will the kind mother who told us of her poultice for colds repeat it? I meant to save it, but it somehow got away from me. I recall only that it had in it camphorated oil and nutmeg.

I get a great deal of help from our Exchange. I am the mother of three dear little children, and appreciate all the help I can get.

Mrs. B. (Union City, Tenn.)

Not to keep you waiting too long while the "kind mother" sees and answers your request, let me tell you that an excellent application to children's throats and chests when these are affected is a piece of red flannel, folded several times, soaked in camphorated oil, besprinkled with allspice or cloves, warmed and laid on the sore or aching part.

An old woman's remedy, but one that is quite as good as the foregoing, is a thin slice of salt pork, plentifully strewn with black pepper. Baste to a strip of flannel and bind to the child's throat.

Silk crochet buttons are revived and are to be had in all the fashionable colors.

DIVORCE EVIL IS DUE TO BAD NERVES, SAYS A GIRL

Young Woman of Philadelphia Asserts "Underground" Circulating Libraries Exist in Schools.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 25.—"The divorce evil can be largely attributed to the reading of 'trashy' novels by our young girls in the formative period of their lives," emphasized Miss Lurie Sterns at a meeting of the Drexel Institute Library pupils.

The subject of Miss Sterns' address was "The Problem of the Girl," and she dwelt at length upon the necessity for placing the best literature at the disposal of young girls.

"Girls who plunge deep into novels of too sentimental a type soon get distorted ideas of life," said Miss Sterns. "How could any girl who reads what we call novels of passion ever expect to grow up with a wholesome idea of love and marriage?"

"While I by no means advocate a too severe censorship of a girl's reading that shall prevent her from wanting to read of her own will, I think there ought to be some kind of a censorship by parents, teachers and librarians. I know from experience that books circulate in nice schools that would shock the mothers of the girls who read them."

"They have what we call 'underground' circulating libraries' in rum-bler's girls' schools, where books of the worst kind go around. I once overheard a girl of 16 say to another girl: 'Yes, that was a most interesting book for me, but it is not the kind of a book I would want my mother to read.'"

Miss Sterns gave a list of readable and good books to the teachers and pupils at the institute, where she was the guest of Miss Alice Kroeger, chief librarian.

SHE SMILINGLY GAVE UP HUSBAND TO ANOTHER

Bride of a Month Proposed Separation When She Learned That She Had a Rival.

WILMINGTON, Del., Jan. 25.—Elizabeth Ruff, a bride of a month, did not go into a rage when she learned that her husband, Charles, loved another. She merely suggested a separation, and the husband, glad to get off so easily, agreed to meet her at the office of Magistrate Broman and sign separation papers.

Ruff appeared at the Magistrate's office with his new love, and Mrs. Ruff actually smiled upon her when she handed over her wedding ring of a month. It is understood that the new love will wear the ring.

The wife asked for no alimony and manifested no regret.

HEIRESS TO BIG ESTATE MARRIED TO CHAUFFEUR

Falls in Love With Young Man Who Drove Her Automobile While on a European Trip.

SYRACUSE, Jan. 25.—Another automobile romance has culminated in the secret marriage of Miss Edith Marguerite Wilber, heiress to a $300,000 estate at Oneonta, to Herbert Cole, a farmer boy, who acted as her chauffeur in a tour of Southern Europe last summer.

When the party returned to Oneonta the young couple had kept their secret so carefully guarded that no one suspected their infatuation.

It was said there was great opposition to the match from the bride's relatives, but she refused to give up Cole, and the ceremony was conducted so quietly that not even their closest friends were informed until recently.

Mrs. Cole inherited her fortune from David Wilber, her grandfather. It consists largely of farm lands in this vicinity. In April, 1905, she reached her twenty-first birthday and came into the estate. Since that time she has managed it herself and has developed great business ability.

HERE IS A SAD END TO A HOME-MADE DIVORCE

NOTICE.

To Whom It May Concern:

I, the undersigned, do hereby, upon this day and date release all material claims on Sarah Amelia Smith Blauvelt and restore to her her maiden name, by which she will be known in the future.

She, Sarah Amelia Smith Blauvelt, is free to marry at any time she, the aforesaid, so desires.

I, William E. Blauvelt, give this written document to prevent court publicity. I cannot and will not after this day, March 7, 1906, claim this woman as my lawful wife, nor shall she claim me as her lawful husband.

I swear never to put myself in her path after this day and date until the end of time.

Sealed by my own hand this seventh day of March, nineteen hundred and six.

Approved of by (Signed) SARAH AMELIA SMITH.

N. B.—This is a mutual marital agreement, which shall not be broken by the laws of God or man. Henceforth and forever we are no longer man and wife.

(Signed) WILLIAM E. BLAUVELT.

March 7, 1906.

Witness: GROVER C. CAMMER.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—That remarkable document, in the original, will be produced before Judge Dike in the Brooklyn County Court on Monday, when William E. Blauvelt is to be arraigned on a charge of bigamy.

The document is an agreement of "divorce" that was drawn up between Blauvelt and his wife and on the strength of which he married again.

Blauvelt is in the Raymond street jail on the complaint of wife No. 2, who was Miss Florence Fitzgerald of 270 Jay street, Brooklyn, and who now lives there with her mother.

While admitting his guilt, Blauvelt pleads ignorance of the law and shows his "certificate of divorce" as a guarantee of his lawful intention. He married Wife No. 1 in April, 1905, and Wife No. 2 in May, 1906. He says he told his second wife of the previous wedding and she claims he showed her the "divorce contract." This, however, Wife No. 2 denies.

The report from Brussels that Giron, the Belgian tutor, who eloped with Crown Princess Louise of Saxony, has been married to a Belgian girl arouses renewed interest in the unfortunate Princess. The accompanying picture shows the banished Crown Princess and her two sons, who have been taken away from her by their father, the present King of Saxony.

GOOD AFTER FEB. 25, 1907.

MUST EXPLAIN HIS REFUSAL

Secretary of State Withheld Certificates to Two Oakland Banks.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 25.—Today, upon the application of R. T. McKelick, attorney, representing a number of bankers, Judge Hughes of the Superior Court issued four alternative writs of mandate, made returnable on February 8, to compel Secretary of State Curry to appear and answer why he has refused to grant certificates of incorporation to four banking institutions. The writs sworn out today were on behalf of the Oakland German Bank, the Oakland Mercantile Bank, and the North Beach Bank and the West Side Bank of San Francisco.

SPENDING THE FOURTH AT HOME.
Last week I got a paper from the town where I was born. Which gave the local and the county news. It told about the prospects for a "whopper" crop of corn. And the reading of it cured me of the blues. But on the opening page I read, in letters large and black, "Some words that made me long in fancy land. And even as I read I thought that I would sure go back. And help them celebrate the "Fourth" at home."

It told about the fine brass band they'd hired for the day. And where the speaker lived and what his name. It said with flags and bunting the streets would all be gay. The boys would have a thrilling baseball game. A big balloon would sure ascend, and prizes for the races. And fireworks shot from off the court-house dome. I said, "Well, all be very glad to see old times' faces. Come back and celebrate the "Fourth" at home."

I laid the paper on my desk and let my thoughts drift back to the time when I was young and gay. I said my dimes for weeks ahead, in order that I'd be in proper shape for Independence Day. And when it came, the glorious "Fourth," I spent them all with joy. And then I'd beg my father for a loan. And if I could for just a day, I'd like to be a boy. And help them celebrate the "Fourth" at home.

It's strange but true, that as we walk the rugged path of life. We hold the scenes of childhood's time most dear. We worry over business cares and at the passing time. And yet one thing to me is very clear—We're children still at heart, and better for it, too. I guess. For if your heart is true and not of stone. You cannot fail to soften, and I think that you'll confess. You'd like to celebrate the "Fourth" at home.

Spring in Cattle Land.

The long and barren plain—sweep Has been touched with faintest green. And the wind from off the mountains Doth not bring a frost so keen. The colts and calves are rickish, Each flank without a blemish. For the roundup call's been issued, And it's Spring in Cattle Land.

The steers have left the hollows Where they covered in the storm; They fatten on the bunch-grass That grows each hilltop warm; And by you look, rider, Each bunch is closely scanned—For the roundup call's been issued, And it's Spring in Cattle Land.

The bronco's sleek and shiny, And he's lost his rusty garb. And there's not a mark upon him Showing bits of spit or hair. But soon he'll feel the saddle. And will buck just something grand—For the roundup call's been issued, And it's Spring in Cattle Land.

The boys down at the bunkhouse Are a-mending rope and chaps. They are picking out the horses That will work best in a pinch; And towards the boundless prairie Will ride each gay top-hand—For the roundup call's been issued, And it's Spring in Cattle Land.

Where Great Arteries Meet

Get out a MAP OF BERKELEY and see how the franchise just granted the Oakland Traction Company for a line connecting the water front with the hills makes DWIGHT WAY second only to University Avenue among cross-town streets.

Then follow SACRAMENTO Street straight from Adeline Street in Oakland to Berkeley's north line (along which—widened to 110 feet—the Key Route trains will soon be running). Shattuck Avenue alone is more important.

Where these TWO GREAT ARTERIES meet is DWIGHT WAY TERRACE. It fronts Sacramento Street a thousand feet. DWIGHT WAY bounds it on the south. At its southeastern corner there's to be a KEY ROUTE STATION.

Who shall say that ten years hence SACRAMENTO Street will be less important than is Shattuck Avenue today? Or its frontage less valuable?

Remember that BERKELEY'S GROWING FASTER than any city in the West.

Remember that not so long ago, when Shattuck was like SACRAMENTO, its frontage brought less than $50 a foot. Remember that today it commands from $500 to $1250.

Then send for a map of DWIGHT WAY TERRACE.

TO INVESTIGATE HIS CHARGE

District Attorney Will Seek Out the Guilty Milliner Who Is Selling Girls.

O'clock-Oakland is no more. In her stead we have a wide awake modern city, with all a city's virtue and all a city's vice; its stolen slave girls, its Chinese tongs, its midnight prowlers, and the red lights that burn past night into the honest light of day. Possibly Dr. Dille's milliner may have drifted in with the rest of modern up-to-date Oakland, and so, for the sake of your beloved city, if not for the sake of that young girl, it might be best to give Rev. E. R. Dille your help and your support; for, secure in your own blamelessness, you can aid, instead of retard, him in his praiseworthy effort to search out this blot on your calling, and of a verity enable your profession to stand forth with an unimpaired name.

"Very truly yours,
"A. C. ROYNTON.
"310 Thirteenth street, Oakland."

FACTS EXPECTED.

"Editor TRIBUNE—A reader of your valuable paper is deeply interested in the sudden eruption of one who considers himself a reverend gentleman, and it is to be hoped he is.

"From a reverend gentleman we expect, at least, the acts of a plain, simple christian. To my mind, as well as to the minds of many, many less pious people than this clergyman, the Rev. Mr. Dr. Dille is guilty of a grievous offense.

"What greater crime can any human commit than to rob women and girls of their good names—

"Who steals my purse, steals trash, But who steals my good name steals all that I have."

"This man has committed a wrong which before the eyes of God and man he must rectify. He must give back that which he has stolen—the good names of hundreds of girls and women in Oakland.

WITH SUSPICION.

"Every one is now looked upon with suspicion. The mothers of these girls are grieved and shocked—and justly so—that the honor of their daughters should be questioned.

"The milliners of Oakland and their employees will give the accused no peace until he rectifies his gross error. He must take back his words, or name the party. He is to be cornered and forced to do it.

"What can the public think of such a charge of people if they allow such a class to hang over their heads. Make him nail it, milliner, or take it back."

"JEAN CURTIS."

REGRETS ACTION.

"Editor TRIBUNE—I regret that my good friend, Dr. Dille, has thrown a harpoon into one of the rotten spots of the jungle of this beautiful twentieth century life. No good will result. It don't set people to thinking; it only excites them for the moment, and his motives are impure. He tells no news, as every one knows that in all large cities girls are never paid enough to live decent, and the larger the city the more of the social evil.

"I very much doubt if any man, or woman, directly, every told or advised their help along this line. Eventually it will turn out some sinister miss has been giving the good doctor hot air. The social evil is a 'necessary and unavoidable' one in this age. All the gospel, all the laws, all the prayers, cannot or will not crush it out, because of the very simple reason that the beast in man still lingers, and it is a long, tedious climb to get it out of humanity. And this age fosters and encourages it particularly. Why should it not thrive? But we are slowly getting there. If the physicians dared to speak they could tell of many a husband who they know as a beast."

WHITE BREAD

Makes Trouble for People With Weak Intestinal Digestion.

A lady in a Was town employed a physician who instructed her not to eat white bread for two years. She told the details of her sickness, and she certainly was a sick woman.

"In the year 1887 I gave out from over work, and until 1901 I remained an invalid in bed a great part of the time. Had different doctors, but nothing seemed to help. I suffered from constipation, nervousness, female trouble, and serious stomach and bowel trouble. My husband called a new doctor and after having gone without any food for 10 days the doctor ordered Grape-Nuts. After eating the first mouthful, the doctor kept me on Grape-Nuts and the only medicine was a little glycerine to heal the alimentary canal.

"When I was up again Doctor told me to eat Grape-Nuts twice a day, and no white bread for two years. I got well in good time and have gained in strength so I can do my own work again.

"My brain has been helped so much, and I know that the Grape-Nuts food did this, too. I found I had been made ill because I was not fed right, that I did not properly digest what I ate, and some other food I tried to live on. I have never been without Grape-Nuts food since and eat it every day. You may publish this letter if you like, so it will help someone else."

ENDS HER LIFE BY CHLOROFORM

Unknown Woman Commits Suicide in Room in a Hotel.

at eight o'clock this morning Harris, the proprietor of the place, became suspicious and forced open the door. He found the woman huddled up on the bed, still attired in her street clothes. In her right hand, which was held close to her nose, was a vial of chloroform. The pillow and bed clothes were saturated with the fluid and the room was filled with its fumes. There were no means of identification, except that the suicide gave her name as "E. Weiss," and her address as 469 Twenty-fifth street, when she purchased the chloroform at about 3.10 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Normal pharmacy, 103 Telegraph avenue, conducted by A. Forneris & Company. The woman told the clerk that she wanted the poison for cleaning purposes.

No such address as that given by the woman was found upon investigation by the deputy coroner this morning. Residents in the neighborhood knew of no such person.

BROKER HAS AN INJUNCTION

Exchange Board Sought to Have A. L. Hudgens Put Off Floor.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—Judge Marquardt granted an injunction today to A. L. Hudgens, a broker who the San Francisco Stock and Exchange Board sought to eject from his seat. The order is returnable next Friday morning.

Hudgens' trouble started when he refused to accept 49,750 shares of Bulls and Bears Mining company stock (now Joseph Toplitz, Hudgens had been buying this stock for J. L. Lindberg, the Klondike millionaire, who wanted 60,000 shares. But when Toplitz refused to deliver the stock Hudgens offered to receive it unless it was issued to him from the office of the mining company.

As the Bulls and Bears company had been incorporated by order of the Arizona courts, this was impossible, so Toplitz was unable to collect $12,437.50, the price of the 49,750 shares. Toplitz applied to the board and a committee was appointed to investigate. They reported in favor of Hudgens, but their findings were rejected and a second committee was appointed. This committee agreed, the majority reporting in favor of Hudgens and the minority in favor of Toplitz. The board adopted the majority report and called on Hudgens to pay the money for the stock.

JURY FAILS TO REACH VERDICT

Disagree in Case of Man Caught by Nurses in Robbery Attempt.

After being out twenty-four hours, the jury in the case of Thomas Riales, who was captured by two nurses at the Home for the Aged Blind and charged with burglary, failed to come to an agreement, so they discharged this afternoon by Judge Harris. They stood ten to two for conviction.

"In dismissing them the court said he could not see how it was that twelve men could fall in a verdict after deliberating for a day and a night.

Riales will be returned to jail and arraigned for another trial.

SIX WOMEN ARE IN POLICE COURT

It was "Ladies' day" in department No. 10 of the police court this morning, six appearing on diverse charges. Mary Fletcher was given three days for drunkenness, as were Julia Delabato and Isabel Jacobs. Mamie Garvin, a negro, was arrested on a charge of vagrancy and her case was continued until January 28th to be set.

Ruby Hartman, also arrested for being that she had a baby to support, was that she had a baby to support. Her case was also continued until tomorrow, as was that of Alice Belmont, charged with vagrancy. The latter appeared in the dock in a costly blue automobile coat and created a sensation among the spectators.

ARE MONEY MAD.

"No Dr. Dille, you cannot stop it. We are money mad. Gold is our god, and it matters little how or by what means it is obtained. Honor, manhood, womanhood, decency brush to the winds. We have got to live it through or die. Many think we shall die as a nation, but we shall not. There are just a few sweet, clean, pure, gentle lives, like Dr. Dille and Rose Stokes, that help, oh, so much, and, while they seemingly don't count for much, they will save the race, for their memory will permeate future lives and the future will pause and think. There will come an hour when we will give God, heaven and the world to come a rest, and turn our eyes and attention to our brothers and sisters here, and ask a few questions that are now smiled and laughed at.

POPULACE AND TROOPS FIGHT

Pierce Collision, Led by Marquis d'Anglade, in French City Today.

VAN NESS, France, Jan. 25.—There was a fierce collision today between 500 troops and the populace, led by the Marquis d'Anglade, during the eviction of the seminarists of St. Anne d'Auray. The crowd cried, "Long live the Prussians!" and during the fighting many persons were injured on both sides. The Marquis de Cuverville knocked out the eye of a commissary of police with an umbrella. The Marquis d'Anglade was arrested.

An Englishman on This Side

says his nation is libeled by tourists who say "avever" for "either" and "fawney" for "fancy." Oh, I don't know. This sort of thing is not libelous. There are 117 distinct dialects spoken in Great Britain, a country no larger than New England, so it isn't surprising that one were disposed to quarrel with people who misinterpret the King's English. It is not so serious a matter as the maltreatment of health to which traveling Englishmen are addicted who patronize the high-ball route. If men who travel were more temperate in eating and drinking, a little intemperance of language could be overlooked. Well, it's me for Lehnhardt's about this time. INLAIN LINOLEUMS

$1.00 per yd. up

Wouldn't you rather buy Linoleum from a firm that has over 5000 yards to select from?

Of course you would; because you know that there you will be able to get the pattern you desire at a fair price.

By buying in large quantities we are able to secure a lower price than smaller firms and consequently get the benefit of it.

Inlaid Linoleums will last a lifetime, as the pattern is solid until worn through. It would be to your advantage to look at our Linoleum window if you contemplate buying.

RACE RESULT AND PADDOCK PUFFS

AT LOCAL TRACK

By LEE DEMIER.

The racing card at Williams Park yesterday was composed of four selling and two conditional purse affairs. Form was somewhat at a premium, the fields in the first three races being large and composed of a very ordinary lot of horses. But the last half of the program was the most interesting, a more select class of sprinters striving for honors in each event.

A field of ten ordinary selling-plate horses lined up in the curtain-raiser, and as the rule in such races tips were numerous. Bogie, from the Kennebec Stable, with Miller in the box, received the most attention and was installed favorite. Peerless Lass, 3 to 1, was one of the good things and those who sent their checks on the brown filly were never in doubt as to what the result would be, as going to the post she unseated all the way. Bogie, now to get going, made up ground and beat out the last-comer, Peerless Lass, for the place.

With the contenders practically left at the post, it was easy for Jake Moore to run a masterly race. He got away in two miles and twenty-four seconds, the first place at 20 to 1, and finished in a time of 1:15.5, which was a very good time for a horse of his class. He was sprung which practically ruined his chances. Jake Moore, at 12 to 1, ran an improved race, and with clear sailing won easily. Ray got the place from Orphan. There were a few other things, but they were not of much interest.

There was quite a demonstration in front of the judges' stand by the players of Van Ness, after Noble Lucille had been pronounced the winner of the six-furlong sprint. It was unbecomingly noisy, but it was not for the first time. The players of Van Ness were very noisy, but there is no question but that they were going in time to get a neck going away. Van Ness was time perfectly, and the players of Van Ness were very noisy, but there is no question but that they were going in time to get a neck going away.

A Wonderful Adviser

A TRUE PSYCHIC

W. A. SHERMAN

LOCATED AT DELMAR'S INSTITUTE OF PSYCHOLOGY

469 Tenth Street

The extraordinary clairvoyant powers of Mr. Sherman, combined with his superior knowledge of palmistry and the occult forces, enable him to read human life with exceeding accuracy. From infancy to old age, his powers are wonderful and indisputable, his advice is reliable, his predictions clear, concise and to the point in love, courtship, marriage, divorce, sales, wills, patents, judgments, divorces, investments, speculations, property, insurance, mortgages, oil and mining claims.

COME AND BE HEALED.

If you are sick in mind or body, or will, without asking questions, or any physical examinations, tell you the nature and cause of your disease, and show you the way to perfect health, success, and happiness.

WITHOUT ASKING A QUESTION.

Without any previous knowledge and having no natural means of knowing who you are, where or for what you came, he tells your name, age, occupation and what you desired for; in fact, everything he tells you names of friends and enemies; who is true and who is false; tells when and where you will marry, giving names, dates, facts and location, taking no fee in advance and accepting none unless satisfaction is given.

SPECULATION AND INVESTMENTS.

His advice is most reliable in those contemplating investing and speculation; the dollar properly invested today has seldom failed to make the poor man rich.

HIRE EXPERT ON INSURANCE

O. G. Jones Will Work With Senate Committee to Get Stable Policies.

Special to THE TRIBUNE.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 25.—The Senate Committee on Insurance and Insurance Laws, of which Senator Leavitt is chairman, which has several bills before it involving all kinds of insurance propositions, has secured the services of an expert in the person of O. G. Jones. This gentleman will aim to aid the committee in finding defects, as also good features in the insurance measures now on file and others which are expected to come before the Senate.

The committee, while composed of practical business men who have a general idea of insurance, came to the conclusion that the emergency occasioned by the great fire of April 18, of last year, required, for the purpose of protecting the insured in the future, more information on involved questions than could be expected from men in other callings, and accordingly decided to secure expert advice based on experience, with the result referred to.

Expert Jones comes from Syracuse,
New York, where, for twenty-five years, he was an adjuster for a number of insurance companies, and for the past ten years he has been acting as an adjuster for the insured. He will receive for his services, in connection with the committee referred to, $2000.

3 Highbinders UNDER ARREST

Taken in San Francisco for Fatal Shooting in the Tong War in Chinatown.

Three Chinese highbinders, Wong
Yet, Sim Kook and Wong Sue, were arrested in San Francisco yesterday on suspicion of having participated in the tong war in Chinatown last week, which resulted in the murder of Lee Bock Dong and the wounding of five others. The three were brought to the Oakland police station last night. Before charges will be placed against them the police will endeavor to ascertain whether any or all of them were responsible for the murder of Lee Bock Dong.

The arrested men are members of the Bing Gong tong, against which the Jap Sings, to which Lee Bock Dong belonged, are waging vigorous legal warfare, having sworn out nearly twenty complaints on a charge of participating in the recent war. They were pointed out to Detective Tom Gibson at Webster and Jackson streets,
San Francisco, by members of the Bing Gong and Detective Kyle of this city was at once sent after them.

SMALL ESTATE TO RIORDAN

Archbishop Montgomery Left Property Worth $2500 to Riordan.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—When the will of the late Archbishop George Montgomery was probated yesterday it was shown just how modest was the estate left by the prelate. Instead of a large fortune, as many looked for, the only property left by Archbishop Montgomery was a collection of personal property valued at $2500. The main article in the whole modest estate was the late Archbishop's library. This collection of books, the gathering of which had been the work of his lifetime, together with what other personal effects he possessed, the Archbishop left to Archbishop Patrick William Riordan.

The will was drafted on January 23,
1906. The witnesses were John D.
Mahoney, 1022 Lyon street, and John Murphy of 1020 Castro street. Archbishop Riordan was named as the sole executor, to serve without bonds.

STUDENTS ARE DEALT A BLOW

San Francisco Board of Education Is Against Fraternities
Among Students.

Resolved, That this board bar all students from high school privileges and activities except that of attending classes so long as they belong to the Greek letter fraternities or sororities or to any society which bars any of their fellow students from membership.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—Yesterday the members of the Board of Education warmed themselves at a bright little blaze of educational opinion, the fuel being the resolution above quoted.
A. Altman, chairman of the high school committee, applied the match when he introduced the topic. It was fully an hour before the last spark was extinguished, and the fraternity firebrand tucked into the safe deposit box labeled "Taken Under Adversement."

Only 82 years old, and don't expect even when I get to be real old to feel that way as long as I can get Electric Bitters," says Mrs. E. H. Brunson, of keeps the old as young and makes the weak as strong as this grand tonic medi-reasonable time. Guaranteed by Osgood

DEATH AN ACCIDENT SAYS CORONER'S JURY

The coroner's jury, at the inquest held last night over the body of Thomas Reilly, which was found in the estuary, returned the following verdict: "We find that death was caused by suffocation by drowning, resulting from his accidentally falling from the trestle while trying to avoid being struck by eastbound train thereon; and we exonerate the engineer, fireman and company from all blame therefor."

PIANOS

That should have arrived for the Holiday Trade, but delayed on account of the congestion of railroad traffic, are now here, some of which are in our storerooms and which must be sold at once, as our store is under renovation. We have no room for them. Two carloads more are due, and as a result we have too many instruments on hand, and they must be disposed of.

The original prices of these pianos are from $250 to $500. We are now selling them from $190 to $350, and you can buy one on very easy terms. This is an opportunity to get a high-grade piano at about 25 per cent less than the regular prices.
